1. How long have you been working in education?
I have been in education for 13 years.
2. What positions of leadership have you held (elected, appointed or voluntary) at the local, region, state or national level?
I am currently the Lead Negotiator for our local.
3. What do you believe are the three primary responsibilities of this office?
I believe the three primary responsibilities of this office are decision making for members, communication with region, and membership.
4. What do you see as the greatest challenge IEA members will face in the next five years? What ideas do you have to address that challenge?
I see the greatest challenge IEA members will face in the next five years may involve legislatures passing laws that are not with the best interests of students and educators.
I plan to be proactive with be informed and being part of the solution.
5. What is your plan for increasing membership and member engagement?
My plan for increasing membership and member engagement starts with one-on-one conversations with staff and planned gatherings.
6. How do you intend to communicate with members in order to keep them informed and to find out their concerns?
I plan to utilize personal email lists to communicate with members and keep them informed.
7. Provide other information you would like members to know:
I am excited about the opportunity to serve the members of IEA through a new avenue. I am dedicated to do my best at whatever I set my mind to. My hopes are that I am chosen to serve as a Regional Representative on the IEA Board of Directors.
